

Partnership - The Kuyavian-Pomeranian Association of Employers and Entrepreneurs

The Kuyavian-Pomeranian Association of Employers and Entrepreneurs - a non-profit organisation - was established in March, 1992, in order to protect rights and represent interests of its members - companies - against labour unions, professional bodies, governmental bodies and self-governmental ones. Its power lies in the power of its members, whose number is constantly growing. Now, it numbers over 160 members, who participate in creating and fulfilling of the association's tasks. The K-PAEE constitutes a part of the Polish Employers Confederation, which is a member of the International Labour Organisation.

It can be good intermediary partner with the wide range of regional firms, employers and entrepreneurs which are interested in the improvement of level and quality of the employees' qualification and skills and in the development of innovative high technology businesses.

The K-PAEE takes part in such project activities as:

- participation in study and research of the labour market needs with regard to the demand for the new professions,
- counselling and co-operation in the development of curricula for new professions relating to technological and local development,
- participation in the quality system development, assessment of the testing phase results,
- development of the strategy of interregional mobility of experts, trainers and learners and employees,
- participation in management of the project, dissemination of results and networking development.
